Jenifer Scott & Groovesound

Jenifer Scott is a Winnipeg-based musician who's been performing since age nine, and today owns and operates her own company, Jenifer Scott Productions. A lead vocalist who can rock the mic with everything from jazz and R&B to country and pop rock, Jenifer has shared the stage with several of Manitoba's top musicians including Dave Lawton, Walle Larsson, Danny Kramer and Ron Paley.

Jenifer also likes to get down and groove with her own jazz ensemble, The Jenifer Scott Trio, or accompany Jeffrey Dolovich on the grand piano as part of a jazz duo. Whether performing as a trio or duet, both groups add a lovely vibe to corporate events or intimate gatherings. She's performed on both the Variety Club of Manitoba and Children's Hospital Research Foundation telethons, including singing with Alfie Zappacosta at the Variety Club Gold Heart Gala in April 2010.

And sports fans may recognize her voice as an anthem singer for The Winnipeg Goldeyes, Manitoba Moose and The Winnipeg Blue Bombers. With her versatile voice, Jenifer also performed on a Reality TV pilot for CTV called Karaoke Live (1997), and has recorded both TV and radio commercials.
